

NEOTRAX

(Levamisole Hydrochloride)
Tablet & Syrup

DESCRIPTION

NEOTRAX (Levamisole) is an effective anthelmintic agent and appears to act by paralysing susceptible worms which are subsequently eliminated from the intestine.

COMPOSITION

Tablet : Each tablet contains Levamisole Hydrochloride BP equivalent to 40 mg Levamisole.

Syrup : Each 5 ml syrup contains Levamisole Hydrochloride BP equivalent to 40 mg Levamisole.

INDICATIONS

Ascariasis

Hookworm infections

Effective against Enterobius vermicularis, Trichuris trichiura, Strongyloides stercoralis and Trichostrongylus colubriformis etc.

DOSAGE AND ADMINISTRATION

As a single dose after meal :

1-4 years : 1 tablet or 1 teaspoonful.

5-15 years : 2 tablets or 2 teaspoonful.

16 years or above : 3 tablets or 3 teaspoonful.

OR AS DIRECTED BY THE PHYSICIAN.

SIDE EFFECTS

Nausea, vomiting, abdominal pain, dizziness and headache.

CONTRAINDICATIONS

It is contraindicated in patients hypersensitive to Levamisole. Levamisole should not be given during pregnancy.

SUPPLY

Tablet : Each box contains 20×10 tablets in strips.

Syrup : Bottles contain 30 ml and 460 ml syrup.

Keep all medicines out of reach of children.

Store in a cool and dry place protected from light.

* Further information is available on request.

